

Professor Geoffrey J. Burton

Geoff Burton is an experienced and highly successful International lecturer; Consultant and Management Developer who enjoys a worldwide reputation in his four areas of specialism -

- Human Resource Strategy
- Human Resource Management
- Employment Law
- Management Development

In all areas of operation, Geoff brings a pragmatic approach to his work, following ten successful years as a Director of a major U.K. food company five years as Managing Director.

Current Status - Academic

Visiting Professor in H.R. Strategy at:

- Sun Yat Sen University - Guangzhou – China
- Shanghai University—Shanghai--China
- Indian Railways College - Baroda - India

Senior Fellow Emeritus Manchester Business School

Visiting Lecturer – The University of Manchester

Leeds University

Civil Service College

Visiting Professor Lancaster University

Hon. Fellow – China Management Centre – Lancaster University

Senior lecturer—Local Government programmes –Wuhan and Fujian --China

Current Status - Consultancy

Consultant to the U.N. (UNIDO) Vienna

Consultant to the E.U. Commissioners - Brussels & Luxembourg

Consultant to the U.K. Nuclear Energy Inspectorate

Consultant to Government of Ghana

Consultant to Government of Tanzania

Consultant to Government of Uganda

Consultant to Institutions; Organisations; and companies across Professional, Commercial and Industrial Sectors of the UK

Advisor to local Business Interests.